- YATAUÇ	REPORT REPORT
OPIC	Military Activity in the Sperenberg Area; New Amphibious Vehicle
WLUATION	PLACE OBTAINED	,
TE OF CO	DNTE
re Obtai	PREPARED 16 September 1954
rerence
GES	2 ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE) 1 - one shotch on ditto
	ENOLOGONES (NO. & 3112)
MARKS_	This is UNEVALUATED
	quartered about 2,500 soldiers including the unit bivouacking on Hege Lake. The troops were black-berdered black, blue-berdered black and	05.74
	Lake. The troops were black-bordered black, blue-bordered black and red-bordered black epaulets. On 31 August, 15 three-axle amphibious cars and 3 trucks with soldiers passed through Sperenberg and proceeded	25X1
	Lake. The troops were black-bordered black, blue-bordered black and red-bordered black epaulets. On 31 August, 15 three-axle amphibious	25X1 25X1
∕2•	Lake. The troops were black-berdered black, blue-berdered black and red-berdered black epaulets. On 31 August, 15 three-axle amphibious cars and 3 trucks with soldiers bassed through Sperenberg and proceeded toward Hege Lake. The unit with amphibious tanks on Hege Lake was seen during the period
2.	Lake. The troops were black-berdered black, blue-berdered black and red-berdered black epaulets. On 31 August, 15 three-axle amphibious cars and 3 trucks with soldiers bassed through Sperenberg and proceeded toward Hege Lake. The unit with amphibious tanks on Hege Lake was seen during the period of observation. On 2 September, 3 amphibious tanks were seen for the first time. They came from the camp on Hege Lake and drove to the	25X1 25X1
2.	Take. The troops were black-berdered black, blue-berdered black and red-berdered black epaulets. On 31 August, 15 three-axle amphibious cars and 3 trucks with soldiers passed through Sperenberg and proceeded toward Hege Lake. The unit with amphibious tanks on Hege Lake was seen during the period of observation. On 2 September, 3 amphibious tanks were seen for the first time. They came from the camp on Hege Lake and drove to the kaserne on Schumke Lake via Sperenberg. On 3 September, about 30	25X1
2.	Take. The troops were black-berdered black, blue-berdered black and red-berdered black epaulets. On 31 August, 15 three-axle amphibious cars and 3 trucks with soldiers passed through Sperenberg and proceeded toward Hege Lake. The unit with amphibious tanks on Hege Lake was seen during the period of observation. On 2 September, 3 amphibious tanks were seen for the first time. They came from the camp on Hege Lake and drove to the kaserne on Schumke Lake via Sperenberg. On 3 September, about 30 amphibious tanks passed through Sperenberg and proceeded toward Kummersdorf village.	25X1 25X1
2.	Lake. The troops were black-berdered black, blue-berdered black and red-berdered black epaulets. On 31 August, 15 three-axle amphibious cars and 3 trucks with soldiers passed through Sperenberg and proceeded toward Hege Lake. The unit with amphibious tanks on Hege Lake was seen during the period of observation. On 2 September, 3 amphibious tanks were seen for the first time. They came from the camp on Hege Lake and drove to the kaserne on Schumke Lake via Sperenberg. On 3 September, about 30 amphibious tanks passed through Sperenberg and proceeded toward Kummersdorf village. Description of the amphibious vehicle:	25X1 25X1 25X1
2.	Take. The troops were black-berdered black, blue-berdered black and red-berdered black epaulets. On 31 August, 15 three-axle amphibious cars and 3 trucks with soldiers passed through Sperenberg and proceeded toward Hege Lake. The unit with amphibious tanks on Hege Lake was seen during the period of observation. On 2 September, 3 amphibious tanks were seen for the first time. They came from the camp on Hege Lake and drove to the kaserne on Schumke Lake via Sperenberg. On 3 September, about 30 amphibious tanks passed through Sperenberg and proceeded toward Kummersdorf village. Description of the amphibious vehicle: Chassis: the vehicle had seven bogie wheels which were somewhat larger than the erive sprockets. They did not touch the upper	25X1 25X1 25X1
2.	Lake. The troops were black-berdered black, blue-berdered black and red-berdered black epaulets. On 31 August, 15 three-axle amphibious cars and 3 trucks with soldiers passed through Sperenberg and proceeded toward Hege Lake. The unit with amphibious tanks on Hege Lake was seen during the period of observation. On 2 September, 3 amphibious tanks were seen for the first time. They came from the camp on Hege Lake and drove to the kaserne on Schumke Lake via Sperenberg. On 3 September, about 30 amphibious tanks passed through Sperenberg and proceeded toward Kummersdorf village. Description of the amphibious vehicle: Chassis: the vehicle had seven bogic wheels which were somewhat larger than the grive sprockets. They did not touch the upper part of the track.	25X1 25X1 25X1
2.	Lake. The troops were black-berdered black, blue-bordered black and red-berdered black epaulets. On 31 August, 15 three-axle amphibious cars and 3 trucks with soldiers bassed through Sperenberg and proceeded toward Hege Lake. The unit with amphibious tanks on Hege Lake was seen during the period of observation. On 2 September, 3 amphibious tanks were seen for the first time. They came from the camp on Hege Lake and drove to the kaserne on Schumke Lake via Sperenberg. On 3 September, about 30 amphibious tanks passed through Sperenberg and proceeded toward Kummersdorf village. Description of the amphibious vehicle: Chassis: the vehicle had seven bogie wheels which were somewhat larger than the grive sprockets. They did not touch the upper part of the track. Superstructure: the vehicle is larger than a T-34 tank. The hall resembles that of a three-axle amphibious vehicle. It had, however,	25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1
2.	Lake. The troops were black-berdered black, blue-berdered black and red-berdered black epaulets. On 31 August, 15 three-axle amphibious cars and 3 trucks with soldiers bassed through Sperenberg and proceeded toward Hege Lake. The unit with amphibious tanks on Hege Lake was seen during the period of observation. On 2 September, 3 amphibious tanks were seen for the first time. They came from the camp on Hege Lake and drove to the kaserne on Schumke Lake via Sperenberg. On 3 September, about 30 amphibious tanks passed through Sperenberg and proceeded toward Kummersdorf village. Description of the amphibious vehicle: a. Chassis: the vehicle had seven bogic wheels which were somewhat larger than the wrive sprockets. They did not touch the upper part of the track. b. Superstructure: the vehicle is larger than a T-34. tank. The hall resembles that of a three-axle amphibious vehicle. It had, however, a boat-shaped bow. Two 3-blade screet, propellers, which could be covered flaps, projected from the slanting rear. A strong lattice	25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1
2.	Lake. The troops were black-berdered black, blue-berdered black and red-berdered black epaulets. On 31 August, 15 three-axle amphibious cars and 3 trucks with soldiers bassed through Sperenberg and proceeded toward Hege Lake. The unit with amphibious tanks on Hege Lake was seen during the period of observation. On 2 September, 3 amphibious tanks were seen for the first time. They came from the camp on Hege Lake and drove to the kaserne on Schumke Lake via Sperenberg. On 3 September, about 30 amphibious tanks passed through Sperenberg and proceeded toward Kummersdorf village. Description of the amphibious vehicle: a. Chassis: the vehicle had seven bogic wheels which were somewhat larger than the drive sprockets. They did not touch the upper part of the track. b. Superstructure: the vehicle is larger than a T-34 tank. The hall resembles that of a three-axle amphibious vehicle. It had, however, a boat-shaped bow. Two 3-blade screw, propellers, which could be covered flaps, projected from the slanting rear. A strong lattice which, presumably, could be pulled down to protect the screws,	25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1
2.	Lake. The troops were black-bordered black, blue-bordered black and red-bordered black epaulets. On 31 August, 15 three-axle amphibious cars and 3 trucks with soldiers bassed through Sperenberg and proceeded toward Hege Lake. The unit with amphibious tanks on Hege Lake was seen during the period of observation. On 2 September, 3 amphibious tanks were seen for the first time. They came from the camp on Hege Lake and drove to the kaserne on Schumke Lake via Sperenberg. On 3 September, about 30 amphibious tanks passed through Sperenberg and proceeded toward kummersdorf village. Description of the amphibious vehicle: Chassis: the vehicle had seven bogic wheels which were somewhat larger than the drive sprockets. They did not touch the upper part of the track. Superstructure: the vehicle is larger than a T-34 tank. The hull resembles that of a three-axle amphibious vehicle. It had, however, a boat-shaped bow. Two 3-blade screw propellers, which could be covered flaps, projected from the slanting rear. A strong lattice which, presumably, could be pulled down to protect the screws, was fitted above the latter. The vehicles had no turret and armament. The hatch was in the center of the deck.	25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1
2.	The troops were black-berdered black, blue-berdered black and red-berdered black epaulets. On 31 August, 15 three-axle amphibious cars and 3 trucks with soldiers bassed through Sperenberg and proceeded toward Hege Lake. The unit with amphibious tanks on Hege Lake was seen during the period of observation. On 2 September, 3 amphibious tanks were seen for the first time. They came from the camp on Hege Lake and drove to the kaserne on Schumke Lake via Sperenberg. On 3 September, about 30 amphibious tanks passed through Sperenberg and proceeded toward Kummersdorf village. Description of the amphibious vehicle: a. Chassis: the vehicle had seven bogic wheels which were somewhat larger than the grive sprockets. They did not touch the upper part of the track. b. Superstructure: the vehicle is larger than a T-34 tank. The hull resembles that of a three-axle amphibious vehicle. It had, however, a boat-shaped bow. Two 3-blade screen propellers, which could be covered flaps, projected from the slanting rear. A strong lattice which, presumably, could be pulled down to protect the screws, was fitted above the latter. The vehicles had no turret and armament.	25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1
	Lake. The troops were black-berdered black, blue-bordered black and red-berdered black epaulets. On 31 August, 15 three-axle amphibious cars and 3 trucks with soldiers bassed through Sperenberg and proceeded toward Hege Lake. The unit with amphibious tanks on Hege Lake was seen during the period of observation. On 2 September, 3 amphibious tanks were seen for the first time. They came from the camp on Hege Lake and drove to the kaserne on Schumke Lake via Sperenberg. On 3 September, about 30 amphibious tanks passed through Sperenberg and proceeded toward Kummersdorf village. Description of the amphibious vehicle: a. Chassis: the vehicle had seven bogic wheels which were somewhat larger than the drive sprockets. They did not touch the upper part of the track. b. Superstructure: the vehicle is larger than a T-34 tank. The hall resembles that of a three-axle amphibious vehicle. It had, however, a boat-shaped bow. Two 3-blade screw propellers, which could be covered flaps, projected from the slanting rear. A strong lattice which, presumably, could be pulled down to protect the screws, was fitted above the latter. The vehicles had no turret and armament. The hatch was in the center of the deck. The commander stood in the hatch and two other soldiers were also seen on the tank. The Eisenbahnpionier Kaserne (3381) was occupied as previously by	25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1
	Lake. The troops were black-bordered black, blue-bordered black and red-bordered black epaulets. On 31 August, 15 three-axle amphibious cars and 3 trucks with soldiers bassed through Sperenberg and proceeded toward Hege Lake. The unit with amphibious tanks on Hege Lake was seen during the period of observation. On 2 September, 3 amphibious tanks were seen for the first time. They came from the camp on Hege Lake and drove to the kaserne on Schumke Lake via Sperenberg. On 3 September, about 30 amphibious tanks passed through Sperenberg and proceeded toward Kummersdorf village. Description of the amphibious vehicle: a. Chassis: the vehicle had seven bogic wheels which were somewhat larger than the drive sprockets. They did not touch the upper part of the track. b. Superstructure: the vehicle is larger than a T-34 tank. The hall resembles that of a three-axle amphibious vehicle. It had, however, a boat-shaped bow. Two 3-blade screet propellers, which could be covered flaps, projected from the slanting rear. A strong lattice which, presumably, could be pulled down to protect the screws, was fitted above the latter. The vehicles had no turret and armament. The hatch was in the center of the deck. The commander stood in the hatch and two other soldiers were also seen on the tank. The Bisenbahnpionier Kaserne (3381) was occupied as previously by approximately 2,000 soldiers who were red-bordered black and black—	25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1
	Lake. The troops were black-berdered black, blue-bordered black and red-berdered black epaulets. On 31 August, 15 three-axle amphibious cars and 3 trucks with soldiers bassed through Sperenberg and proceeded toward Hege Lake. The unit with amphibious tanks on Hege Lake was seen during the period of observation. On 2 September, 3 amphibious tanks were seen for the first time. They came from the camp on Hege Lake and drove to the kaserne on Schumke Lake via Sperenberg. On 3 September, about 30 amphibious tanks passed through Sperenberg and proceeded toward Kummersdorf village. Description of the amphibious vehicle: a. Chassis: the vehicle had seven bogic wheels which were somewhat larger than the drive sprockets. They did not touch the upper part of the track. b. Superstructure: the vehicle is larger than a T-34 tank. The hall resembles that of a three-axle amphibious vehicle. It had, however, a boat-shaped bow. Two 3-blade screw propellers, which could be covered flaps, projected from the slanting rear. A strong lattice which, presumably, could be pulled down to protect the screws, was fitted above the latter. The vehicles had no turret and armament. The hatch was in the center of the deck. The commander stood in the hatch and two other soldiers were also seen on the tank. The Eisenbahnpionier Kaserne (3381) was occupied as previously by	25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1

Approved For Release 2007/07/19: CIA-RDP80-00810A005100610007-4

(CLASSIFICATION) SECRET

SECTION

and the special engineer regime on Nege Lake s		finate whiteh has been blivewelting
Comment.	All reports on the ma	a completations tendes originated from this sees	we only who used this	designation for the first time in July 1954.		Corresponding impermention
by two other s	nunces indicated tiet,	on 15/4 Jene 1954, en undetermined n	wher of explicitleus ve	deter from the USSE were	25
dispetched to	de unidentifica engine	Company of the particular of t
then, employed	for practice on Hoge	lake.	25
The above dege	papuaga and the sucton	confirm the fact that a new	Z
		n the CDR. The designation
		aly if the wehicle were ermed us car presumably is a tracklaying	2
	pows. Inc new ampulotes	na con branchmanth na a crocertalisms
(Mantiplie) (Militaria)		•	2
Comment.	The installation is s	till accupied by the beadquarters	2
	of the 2d Gds AMA Div
			2
•			_
	NODEX		2

25X1

25X1

25X1

Approved For Release 2007/07/19 : CIA-RDP80-00810A005100610007-4 25X1 25X1 25X1